

The Hungry Wolf

RACHEL LEACH

A Andante  $\text{♩} = 100$ 2

Stop! Wait Don't o - pen_ the gate A wolf might be wai-ting for you Big jaws Sharp claws The wolf might eat you too. When you

6

11 B Allegro  $\text{♩} = 120$

live in the woods and there's not much food All the an - i - mals a - round you think you're so rude Cos you eat e - v'ry-thing with - out a thought Cree-ping a-round try-ing not to be caught. If you see a duck you think 'Gosh, what luck!' And a bird in flight is such a de-light. You gob-ble a cat but your be lly's still flat A child is what you want to make you nice and fat. Wolves want to eat you up. Wolves want to hunt you down.

14

18

22

26 C

31

Run in - to a hun-gry one and that's the end. Wolves don't want to be your friend